THE WASHINGTON HERALD

Published Kvery Morning in the Year THE WASHINGTON BERALD COMPANY

m Main 300. (Private Branch Exchange. PUBLICATION OFFICE:

1322 NEW YORK AVENUE N.W. Entered at the postoffice at Washington, D. C., as Manuscripts offered for publication will be returned if unavailable, but stamps should be sent with the manuscript for that purpose.

No attention will be paid to anony mous contributions, and no communications to the editor will be printed except over the name of the writer. Chicago Representative, A. R. KEATOR, 715 Hartford Building.

Atlantic City Representative, C. K. ABBOT, 63 Bartlett Building. New York Representative, J. C. WILBERDING SPECIAL AGENCY, Brunswick Building.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY CARRIER: SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY MAIL: without Sunday, without Sunday, y, without Daily

TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1913.

The Dumping Clause.

derwood tariff bill is the so-called this hemisphere, as well as in London "dumping clause." It provides that and in quaint old Ghent, are to be on when the price at which goods are the programme. In the latter city it consigned for importation into the is proposed to reproduce the banquet of get their names," declared the grumpy United States is less than the price January 8, 1815, which followed the at which the same goods are ordinarily conclusion of the treaty. Throughout sold in the exporting country, an ad- the English-speaking world all indus ditional duty shall be levied on such try is to cease for five minutes. Mongoods equal to the difference in the uments are to be erected, roads and two prices. This provision is a very parkways to be built along the Cacommendable one from the producer's nadian border. A statue of peace is point of view, especially in view of the to be set up in New York Harbor, radical cuts made in certain rates in not to speak of a chain of public exthe bill; but it is obvious that such ercises in all British lands and the a clause is out of place in a tariff bill United States. for revenue only. It is distinctly a Foreign nations will be invited to protective feature, and shows that the bill participate, if desirous to do so, was not framed "without thought of through their envoys or other repreprotection," the statement of the Ways sentatives, at these exercises which and Means Committee's report to the will signify no departure from our contrary, notwithstanding. Even this policy of avoiding entangling alliances, report admits the dumping clause is in which, in fact, alone has made possible or not this practice, when indulged in be lost under the new system. by American manufacturers, is justican consumer is not the subject of the several States. Next year thirty-

Paragraph R is new legislation, and England, in celebrating this centenprovides for a dumping duty to guard the producers of the United States should also do the same with regard MRS. HELEN LONGSTREET'S against the demoralization of American to France. Fighting between American from foreign countries of articles into the United States at prices less than the fair market value of the same articles when sold for home consumption treaty of Chent, which was signed on the same articles when sold for home consumption treaty of Chent, which was signed on the same articles when sold for home consumption treaty of Chent, which was signed on the Editor: I notice that President Wilson is going to take up the matter of appointments this week. I hope he in the usual and ordinary course in the to the United States.

The Reverse of the Medal.

ness issued by the Pennsylvania Rail- ularity to the test direct. of that system the floods interfered to a great extent with the carning caheavy, the operating expenses in- beyond the whims of the hour, will quence, a decrease of almost $850,000. tide. quarter of $31,000, as computed by the Philadelphia Record. part of the arbitrators, of the fire- body in future be depended upon to men's demands in these columns the perform this tempering of the blasts other day, we contended that it was of impetuosity? obvious, especially under present conditions, that the railroads will not our basic law, it must be utilized acbe able to increase wages indefinitely, cording to the prevailing standards of when subject to severe losses by elementary disturbances and other disas- the next election is going to be more ters, and at the same time through the interesting and more uncertain than operation of oppressive laws, all caus- any in our previous political history. ing financial peril, unless able and permitted to also increase their earning capacity.

This cannot be accomplished by a higher rate for passengers, as this would never be granted by the Interstate Commerce board. But there may be a chance for higher freight rates. and that commission in the near future is to be petitioned by the railroads with that end in view. This will bring the public face to face with some startling facts as to the true condition of affairs. It has not only been in sympathy with the employes .for more pay, because all realize what families have to go through owing to the much higher cost of living, but it has insisted upon laws that made the operation of railroads more expensive Add to this the losses through ele mentary disasters and protracted interruption of traffic and the total effect becomes a very serious matter. This can be easily proven by the dethe publication of the monthly statements by the railroads. Coming down to hard facts, the interests of the railroads and the public are really identical, because one cannot suffer losses without the other being

No man, no corporation, can spend dollar when less than that dollar is affected thereby.

The British Peace Committee.

The arrival of a number of British and Canadian delegates at New York indicates that Great Britain proposes to celebrate 100 years of peace with less they eat." America in 1914 and has sent her representatives to confer with those appointed for the same purpose in this country.

Impressive ceremonies, public exercises and works, and monuments have been suggested by the American committee to commemorate the signing of One of the new features of the Un- the treaty of Ghent. Ceremonies on the interests of the producer. It says: this centenary of peace.

from whence they are exported Christmas Eve, 1814, reached this tice for wome Christmas Eve. 1814. reached this the for women who, favor suffrage secountry. Waterloo was fought in don't care anything about office. "Dumping" is a practice frequently June, 1815. All this should be well votes, and also an office for myself and "Dumping" is a practice frequently June, 1875. All this should be well a liberal distribution for my sex. Reindulged in by both American and forup the programme for the peace centrely the press and the people have been exercised over the mere suggestion wheel. They take up the slack and quality of the men who in future profit, and unload any surplus abroad tinction between the popular and the at a relatively lower price. Whether conservative branches of Congress may

The members of the present Senate this editorial. Very probably it is not two of them will have to appeal to the people if they desire to retain their places. Two years later thirty-two The statement for the March busis more will be obliged to put their pop-road reveals some pertinent facts in It is more than doubtful whether connection with the firemen's demand we shall ever again have long-timed for more pay. On the Western lines Senators like Cullom, Allison, Benton, pacity during the latter part of that too fickle for such men. It cannot be month, but on the lines cast of Pitts- depended upon to hold out, wherefore, burg, where the flood losses were not the far-sighted statesman, who can see creased more than $1,500,000, the net stand a poor chance against those who operating income showing, in conse-know how to swim with the popular

For the first three months of the year Most of us have heard and rememexpenses increased faster than the rev- ber George Washington's simile comenue, leaving a net deficit for that paring the Senate to a saucer into which the hot tea of the House is poured to cool off. Can that hereto-When discussing the award, on the fore deliberate, slow, and conservative

But as the new method is part of the popular confidence. None the less

PEACE AND WAR.

(By JOHN A. JOYCE.) Onmerce cowards in rejregi!

The monarchies of Europe
Are now arming day by day,
Building occan dreadnesshis.
To blow their fore away;
And if this wast republic
Does not arm for self-defense, Destruction will surround as
For our lack of vigilance!

A LITTLE NONSENSE

SHIFTING IDEALS.

Most of the dameels that I know Or live among Desire a Brummel for a beau When they are young. clining prices in the stock market after

Inclined to curl, And be a multimillionaire But with the years a girl grows

And twenty-seven plunks a week Look pretty good.

"I can't understand how some things

"For instance?"

"Take this strawberry shortcake

Rude Innaendo. "I am unknown," sighed the poet

His friend looked at him significantly out of lok that you do out of other liquids," he said, "you would be nothing

THE OPEN FORUM

REAPPOINTMENT IS URGED

treaty of Ghent, which was signed on will not forget the women. I want jus-"Ti is a great piece of humor, considered by England when making a liberal distribution for my sex. Beening manufacturers. When their programme for the peace centering manufacturers when the programme for the peace centering manufacturers. When their programme for the peace centering manufacturers with a large plant must considered by England when making up the programme for the peace centering the home demand that they cannot run their mills full time without demoralizing the home market, they will sell all the goods possible at a given price in the home market and "dump" the remainder on a forcign market at any price that they can obtain. A manufacturer with a large plant must consider interest on his capital, depreciation, takes, his labor supply, and home the programme for the peace centering distribution does more than substitute, and the programme for the peace centering manufacturers with a large plant must consider interest on his capital, depreciation, takes, his labor supply, and have all, the "going value" of his concern as an organization; and very of run his mill full time at a known loss rather than not to run a mendment to the Federal whom has been expended in the construction of the suffrage disturbance wheel. They take up the slack in production. Manufacturers will be a change in the character in the price of the manufacturer work o ance wheel. They take up the slack and quality of the men who in future administrative and executive ability that in production. Manufacturers find that the net profit is greater if they as is the principle of popular government, there may be such a thing as the principle of popular government, there may be such a thing as treet for Postmaster General. In this they can on the home market at a carrying it too far. The former dis- day when "votes for women" is resounding over the land. I am sure that Presi-dent Wilson would not consider dis-placing Mrs. Gen. Longstreet, who is young, lovely, gifted, and popular, unless he is considering sending her as Ambassador to one of the European fied from the standpoint of the Amer- were elected by the Legislatures of countries. Mrs. Longstreet was not left a fortune, and has spent her salary in ISLANDS OWNERSHIP DEBATED. Team Arguing Against Holding Philippines Wins Decision.

The negative team, composed of William A. Crevelling and Thomas A. Lane was awarded the decision in the annual Should Permanently Retain the Philippine Islands.

The affirmative was upheld by Edward The amrinative was uponed by Solvente R. Hailoran and Raymond F. Osborne. The judges were Representative Allan B. Walsh of New Jersey, J. Selwin Tait, president of the Washington and Southern Bank, and Rev. J. A. Cowan, O. P., St. Dominic's Church.

MRS. GURLEY-KANE TO ENTERTAIN WOMEN

Well-known Recitationist to Appear in "If I Were King" at the New Willard.

Mrs. Evelyn Gurley-Kane will make her first public bow since the death of her father when she appears before the Woman's National Rivers and Harbors Congress in the red room of the Willard at 8 o'clock Friday evening in own dramatization of "If I

The Woman's National Rivers
Harbors Congress is a humane and benevolent organization, having as its object the conservation of water to preject the conservation of water to pre-The Woman's National Rivers and vent such floods as the recent Ohio disaster. The public is invited to the meeting. Tickets can be secured at the Willard, the Raieigh, and other leading Salary Increase for Gardner.

A bill was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Martine of New Jersey to increase the salary of the collector of customs of the new customs district, which includes the State of Maine and the State of New Hampshire, from $5.0.1 to $5.00 a year. Former Senator Obadiah Gardner of Maine has been offered this office, and it is understood that he will be appointed in time to enable him to take the office at the beginning of the fiscal year.

Cardiff, Wales. May 5.—The strike Philadelphia's District Attorney says of 55,000 coal miners in South Wales. in protect against the open-shop polymer as settled today.

STATESMEN-REAL AND NEAR

When he was working on a Boston paper some years ago. Representative Billy Murray and another reporter formed a little coalition for mutual boosting.

Their plan was this: Whenever cither citie of them had a friend drop into the office, he would be entitled to use the other porty to the compact as a sort of literary valet, and dictate important lefters to him, for the purpose of swelling up and showing off a little before the visitor.

It is she were plunks a week
Look pretty good.

Just So.

The best the President can do is to please the man who gets the job, and some Presidents haven't even succeeded in doing that.

A Good Scheme.

Our hostess always wants the guest to join in singing."

"A good idea. The more they sing, the less they eat."

Suspicious..

"Would you go through fire and water for me?"

Would you go through fire and water for me?"

Guick Returns.

The mushroom springs up over night; Its growth doth never stop.

And I maintain that this is quite The proper kind of crop.

To look at Representative Bird S. Mc-Guick Metals and propose of a welling up and showing off a little before the visitor. If one of Murray's acquaintances come in, he immediately said:

Up and showing off a little before the visitor. If one of Murray's acquaintances come in, he immediately said:

"Pardon me just one minute while I dictate this letter to my secretary." Then mushroom springs up over night; Its growth doth never stop.

And I maintain that this is quite

The proper kind of crop.

To look at Representative Bird S. Mc-Guick Metals and showing off a little before the visitor. If one of Murray's acquaintances come in, he immediately said:

"Pardon me just one minute while I dictate this letter to my secretary." Then mushroof the just one minute while I dictate this letter to my secretary." The mushroof me just of the tester to my secretary. Then purpose of a well-instance of the letter might begin, "please capilal by return mail why you have not been more prompt in complying with the contemplation of the intimate relations the letter revealed.

Billy Murray went around among his pollitical acquaintances offering prelexit for them to call at his office, and he was something else again. He was something else again. He solute the solute of the intimate relations the letter revealed.

But at the end of a week the compact the individual to the propose of a well-in the contemplation of the intimate relations the letter might begin, "please the man was righ

To look at Representative Bird S. Mc-Guire of Oklahoma, with his well groomed figure and roll-top-desk manners, one would be slow to suspect that he got his political start by so unstatesmanlike a device as roping and tying a steer. McGuire spent two years on the range

"Well, I was foreman of the last ranch throat, for he was out of practice.

But he brought down mister steer just as easily as taking a cup of coffee, The reserved.)

New York Paraders Wore

Unpopular Gowns.

member of that British organization, the very organization whose colors were removed only a few days ago by the British government. When you re-

Gen. Rosalie Jones, the hiker, lament-ed Saturday evening that parades for women were not as exciting as they used to be, may we not infer that the can suffragis will be to imitate the militancy of her English sister."

Figures of Police Enumeration Are Expected to Reach 360,000 for District.

The police department will complete taking its annual census of Washington by the latter part of this week. An increase of several thousand is expected over the enumeration of last year. It is believed that the figures now being obtained by the policemen detailed to this work will show the population of the District to be fully 380,000. This does not be the contraction of the detailed to the detailed to the contraction of the detailed to the detaile

District to be fully 250,000. This does not include persons who work in the not include persons who work in the city and have their sleeping quarters in suburban Maryland and Virginia towns. Only persons who sleep in the District

Chief Clerk Hess, of the Police Department, immediately after all figures from the thirteen precincts and substaons are in will commence the tabula tion of the enumeration. There are elev-en precincts, one sub station, and the harbor precinct. Each of these detailed

The policemen detailed to the enpeared at a house to ascertain tion have encountered many incidents of interest. In many cases where they ap-persons of various ages lived there they were forced to explain fully their object enumeration.

of several thousand is expected

JOB OF CENSUS COPS

ber this, and when you recall that temptation confronting the Ameri-

WILL END THIS WEEK

Clyde Kelly, the youthful Pennsylvania Clyde Kelly, the youthful Pennsylvania, insurgent, who succeeds John Dalzel' in Congress, has carried a bullet in his breast for the last eighteen years. The consequence is that he can get ice cream free of charge every little while.

Kelly and another boy had gone hunting. The former was leaning against ing. The former was leaning against the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the trust of manufacturers and landlords. With each election though he moved a few points to the left, so as to keep pace with the majority. As an orator he has a sort of ease and grace that go far and often have saved him from nailing his colors to any mast to which he was attention.

"Don't, oh, please, don't tell anybody I

"Rope that steer yonder," said the rest of your life!"

"Rope that steer yonder," said the rest of your life!"

"Kelly never told who shot him 'til after McGuire borrowed a horse and rope and the boy had told it himself. Ever since went after the steer with his heart in his throat, for he was out of practice.

SUFFRAGISTS' DRESSES PRETTY 'CITIZENESSES'

ATTACKED BY ANTIS GREETED BY PRESIDENT

Mrs. George, of Opposition Camp, Says Freeville, N. Y., and Annapolis Junction, Md., "Rulers" Visit Washington to Study Government.

SPLIT SKIRTS ARE CONDEMNED RECEPTION TENDERED VISITORS

Nineteen bashful, blushing lasses yes

r Republic at Annapo-"Another interesting phase of the parade was that it was led by Miss Inez the uneasy and dissatisfied women of the present day devote themselves. "Another interesting phase of the pasie Hancock, Stella Nagorwouski, Nagorwouski, Lillian Hazen and M Radford. Milholland, who were the colors and insignia of the militant suffragists of England. Miss Milholland is an active Committee Meets Girls.

A reception committee, composed of Miss Aline Solomons, Mrs. Mary S. Lock-wood, Miss Elizabeth Howry, Mrs. Saunders Johnson, Miss Rose Bradford, Mrs. Philip S. Henry, Mrs. Eldridge E. Jardan, former Representative John W. Dwight, John Newbold, C. Mullikin, Jardan, former Representative John W. Dwight, John Newbold, C. Mullikin, Walter F. Rogers, and Archibald Hopkins, took the girls in charge as soon as they arrived.

After the girls from Freeville, who, by Miss Margaret Wilson assisted her father in receiving the girls. She was very much interested in them and asked concerning the republics which they represented. Friends of the movement think she will shortly take an active transfer on the started in politics as an underling to M. Meline, the panegy-less.

President Wilson had a word of compliment for each girl as he shook her hand and he told them singly and collectively that they deserved great praise for their enterprise.

The Women's League of the Republic lenry, 1402 Massachusetts Avenue, last

DAY OF REST FIGHT.

orth Washington Citizens Name Delegate to Hearing.

A resolution indossing the proposed legislation to make one day in seven mencement he is so large that it a day of rest was adopted by the members of the North Washington Citizens' utes to walk entirely around him. persons of various ages fived there they were forced to explain fully their object in getting such figures. Some women answered questions asked by the patrolomen answered questions and underclassman looking uses to watch the answer, likes to watch the same senior as few months later. looking up to an office boy, and asking him how he got his job.

A senior is a few m

LEADER.

ONE FORM OF EDUCATION IS

To see things and ask questions about the things seen. It goes deeper and makes a stronger and more remainable impression to handle articles and look them over long and carefully.

You are cordially invited to visit us, and, kindly remember, you will not be held up and urged to buy.

PORCH FLOORING AS FOLLOWS:

The Frank Libbery Lumber & Mill Work

Sixth Street and New York Avenue. WASHINGTON, D. C.

Court Gossip of Interesting Events on Two Continents

(Copyright, 1913, by A. D. Jacobson.) "Take this strawberry shortcake. If they had called it shortberry strawcake it could have seen the point."

I could have seen the point."

Giving a Guess.

"Under what circumstances did a fasever been one of their sort.

"Under what circumstances did a fasever been one of their sort.

"That was before the cantecen had been abolished," ventured the student at the foot of the class.

"That was before the cantecen had been abolished," ventured the student at the foot of the class.

"Well, I was foreman of the last ranch where he last served in the plants of the masses, and in the plants of the last ranch where he had stopped, "I'd vote for you."

"Well, I was foreman of the last ranch where he last ranch where he last served in the plants of the last ranch where he last served in the plants of the last ranch where he last served in the plants of the plants of the plants of the plants of the last ranch where he last strances are pleased:

"Well, I was foreman of the last ranch where he last ranch where he last ranch where he last ranch and I'd get everybody I know to vote the foot of the class.

"Well, I was foreman of the last ranch where he last ranch and I'd get everybody I was foreman of the last ranch the foot of the class.

"Well, I was foreman of the last ranch and I'd get everybody I was foreman of the last ranch the plants of the last ranch and I'd get everybody I was foreman of the last ranch the foot of the class.

"Well, I was foreman of the last ranch and I'd get everybody I was foreman of the last ranch the foot of the class.

"The thought you were a sure nough the masse, the man who brought, about the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the blown, having against the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the blown, having against the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the blown fall of Gen. Boulanger, the blown, having against the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the blown fall of the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the blown fall of the downfall of Gen. Boulanger, the bl

His master stroke was to rid France peacefully of Boulanger at the height of the excitement, and when the opera-bouffe general's partisans were gaining ground each day. M. Constans was wise enough to foresee that the arrest of the general might lead to a revolution, and general might lead to a revolution, and therefore he had recourse to an ingenous ruse. Having signed a warrant for he general's arrest, he placed that document in plain view on his desk while receiving one of Boulanger's intimate much perturbed left the office hurriedly. Next morning the news spread through Paris that Boulanger had fled across the rontier. The ridicule showered upon the fugitive over his cowardly act in leaving his followers to face the wrath of the populace marked a speedy end of Boulangerism. Flaneur readers perhaps will recollect epoch, after leading an obscure life at horrible injury like throwing vitriol, he Frussels for some years, shot himself to death in the cemetery of that city beside the grave of his beloved Marguerite. "the only sensible thing the "Baker" (Bou-langer-baker) ever did in his life." as

M. Barthou, the new French premier in the Meline Cabinet, to which France indirectly owes so many strikes and riots. tions can be compared favorably with those of an acrobat. He shifts about very often, but the limits around which he evolves are fixed. Outside of the good care that his speech should furnish uscripts, engravings, and curios, his one His evolutions, involutions, and convolu-

well suit the combine that brought M.
Poincare into the Elysee. When Henri Quatre said that Paris "vaut bien une messe" and had sucked dry the Huguenot orange, he showed himself a typical Bearnais, and so is Barthou one. The Bearnais is mobile cloves and pleasant Bearnals is mobile, clever, and pleasant to deal with. But no matter how intimate one might be with him, he is the last person to oblige one, however trifling the favor, unless one can be of use to

After the girls from Freeville, who, by the way, are members of the Fortnight; in the first four Bernadottes had this character, especially the first of that dynasty. He would never betray any one, although are after it. True, if divided among his lieutenants, it would give each a highly done so. But he did have a knack of slipping away from close associates when they were taken to the home of Mr. and he could be of use to them, if they could among his lieutenants, it would give each a highly lucrative practice. The great corporations need for standing counsel barrianters who have access to the ministries and the committee rooms of the Senate and that they were taken to the White House in a transfer of pay in the Paris law courts is like the heritage of Alexander the Great. Those leading acter, especially the first of that dynasty. He would never betray any one, although are after it. True, if divided among his lieutenants, it would give each a highly lucrative practice. The great corporations need for standing counsel barrianters who have access to the ministries and the committee rooms of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies. Not only in America are leaving the policies are the first four Britant The legal business of M. Poincare at the Paris law courts is like the heritage the first four Bernadottes had this char-teder, especially the first of that dynasty, advecates who combine law with politics rist of manufacturers and landlords. With

A handsome man, a perfect figure on horseback, the idol of the masses, yet bouldinger proved no match for the astute and intensely patriotic Constans. Produce Hamlet without the Danish the plunt, bluff, and stocky Minister of the Interior of that day, who stamped and a Mirabeau. The latter a towering the public deprendent of the public deprendent of the state of the product of the plunt, bluff, and stocky Minister of the Interior of that day, who stamped and a Mirabeau. The latter a towering the public deprendent of the product of the public deprendent of the product of the public deprendent of the product of the product of the public deprendent of the product of the produ the blunt, bluff, and stocky Minister of prince, and, of course, failed. A Barthou the Interior of that day, who stamped and a Mirabeau. The latter a towering out the public demonstrations with an right who tried to do in his time what Lloyd-George is doing now. He let lose the Gallic majority upon the Frankisch minority. He tried to end class suprem-acy in France just as Lloyd-George is trying the same thing in England, by seeking to undo the last effects of Nor-seeking to undo the last effects of Nor-man supremacy over the Anglo-Saxon.

The new French premier impresses one as a dilettante. He is soft and swaying in appearance, and while not at all a "penseur." tries to pose as a great thinker. Being made of pliable stuff, he is not brittle. He is far too shrinking. friends, who called at the ministry on orderly and sensitive to be a fit minister; business. During the interview M. Constans was called out of the room by his collectors of rarities, which some day private secretary. The distinguished visports are secretary. The distinguished visports are collectors of rarities, which some day private secretary. The distinguished visports are collectors of rare editions and autographs he is today the rival of Baron Henri de Rothschild.

of as a "galant homme," and judges, furors, advocates, and even the as far as they can, are on the side of the vengeful deserted wife, and if the object of her vengeance is foolish enough to prosecute her in court, save for some makes of himself a laughing stock. Prince Antonio de Bourbon, grandson of King Louis Philippe, first cousin and as brother-in-law of the King of Spain, and the famous satirical brother of the Comtesse de Paris, never himself by his prosecution of the widow began his career as an under secretary in the Meline Cabinet, to which France in the Meline Cabinet, to which France indirectly owes as many strikes and riots ists as the peerless Breton, Marie Le tastes of a collector of rare books, many useripts, engravings, and curios, his one sim as a public man is to hold trump cards, by no matter what means,
A strong president, who is bound at all times to have his own way, means a weak premier. England had a strong King, if a willful one may be so designated, in George III. No strong cabinet or prime minister was possible during his long reign. Therefore M. Barthou may well suit the combine that brought M.
Poincare into the Elysee, Who are the prince's neck. Her attorney took good care that his speech should furnish readable "copy" to newspapers, and the court imposed a nominal sentence upon the lady in spite of medical testimony on the seriousness of the injury and the thick scar on the noble suitor's neck.

"E' is a specific Breton prefix. It is the equivalent of the Irish "O." Originally it meant a person distinguished or pre-eminent for a certain quality. The "Franks," in contradistinction to the Bretons, attributed all

> Bretons were given to hero worship in common life, the others to worship of the landgrabbers who evicted the Gallo-Romans. Thus "Le" Manach expressed Romans. Thus "Le" Manach expressed some particular excellence in former days, but I am not aware what.

SENIORS

Author of "At Good Old Siwash."

a great man, who is about to bec a common citizen. After the senior has delivered his oration and has received his diploma, he takes off his cap and, gown and becomes a humble struggler at the foot of the ladder, with everybody's feet in his face. But just before cor and girls from 16 to 18; all children from 2 to 19, and infants from 1 day to 2 Senator James O'Gorman celebrated his years old. The occupations of persons the course of the companion of persons who work for a livelihood will be given. Philadelphia's District Attorney average. Last night the Senator entertained several of his colleagues at the courts of that city can, if they wish, persion mothers, needing no new legistic. Witness a presentation of "Little in a cool, dry place, where it will not the disturbed. When you notice an extension of the busy financial district. (Copyright, iii), by Gorman Celebrates Birthday.

Mr. O'Gorman Celebrates Birthday.

Senator James O'Gorman celebrated his instruct a captain of industry in meta-physics and aesthetics, and can read that in faster than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college with them and try its other than a ratiroad president. Some seniors carry this knowledge away from the college way from the college way from the college away from the colleg

At this time of the year the senior senior making very good in bu becomes an all-important institution in politics, or journalism, you can safely bet that he has taken off most of his dent in the last gasps of office. He is

